1st. Sunday of Lent

Jesus prayed and fasted for forty days and nights. We can take His example, begging the Lord for the Harvest for an increase in Church vocations. If you feel as though you are being called, please reach out to your priest or to Fr. Josh Johnson at the Vocation Office in Baton Rouge at (225) 336-8778 or via email: jjohnson@diobr.org.

Week One – Love and Humility – John 13:1-5

It was just before the Passover Festival. Jesus knew that the hour had come for Him to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end. The evening meal was in progress, and the devil had already prompted Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus. Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under His power, and that He had come from God and was returning to God; so He got up from the meal, took off His outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around His waist. After that, He poured water into a basin and began to wash His disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around Him. Holy Father, thank you for loving us and for sending your Son to claim us as His own. He who loved us to the end, who became our Passover Lamb, has shown me how to love. Whose feet should I wash today? This I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, Amen.

Stations of the Cross

Every Friday during Lent we will pray the Stations of the Cross at 6:00p.m. During the Stations, Fr. Michael will hear Confessions. Lent is not only a time of repentance or sorrow for our sins, but in addition, it is a baptismal season of preparation for the new life of our catechumens and of recalling the new life of our own baptism.

Mission Statement

We, the members of Our Lady of Pompeii Parish, through the intercession of our patroness, the Blessed Mother, are committed to the teachings and the traditions of the Roman Catholic Church. Empowered by the Holy Spirit and strengthened by the Holy Eucharist, our faithful life extends to the larger community and to us, and we enthusiastically commit ourselves to serve our neighbors and each other through witness and evangelization.
